THE SAINT-CLAUDE CHURCH CARILLON HAS TAKEN A NEW LIFE

(Written by Mgr. Roger Bazin – translated to English by Robert Desmet)

No, the carillon of the parish church of Saint-Claude was not dead! Following a 'metamorphosis' of a few years, it has been reawakened with a completely enhanced new look and sound.

In 1967, Canada's centennial year as well as the 75th anniversary of the Saint-Claude parish, a fundraising project was started for the purchase of an electronic carillon system for the bell tower of the new church. On July 16 of that year, on the occasion of the visit of Archbishop Mgr. Maurice Baudoux, the carillon was heard for the first time.

Some 57 years have since passed, with the carillon ringing out, always with ardor, the noon and 6 p.m hour Angelus, reminding us of the Annunciation of the Angel Gabriel to Mary that she would become the mother of the Savior. This long-standing tradition still continues in many churches in Europe and the Christian world. In St. Claude, the carillon also invited the faithful to religious services: the Sunday masses, the announcement of baptisms, marriages and of funerals. On three occasions the carillon even sounded the death knell announcing the death of popes. Daily at 3:30 p.m., the carillon would play a few pieces of music when classes were being let out. These musical pieces were occasionally tuned to celebrate different seasonal holiday themes.

The carillon let us hear that there was life and prayer in the heart of the parish church and the village.

The sounds of their chimes faded away shortly before COVID-19, but it was not dead; it was to, in due time, transform himself back to life. With the help of financial resources acquired from the parish's special projects funds, the bell tower, now can ring as would 48 brand new bells, cast in bronze, to the sounds of the Sonata - Verdin Style electronic bell system.

Thanks to the generous contributions of parishioners, supported by the meticulous work of the Parish Finance Committee, we now will enjoy the sounds of a renewed carillon sound system at the cutting edge of digital electronic technology. The carillon was acquired from Verdin company, established since 1842, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

The Saint-Claude parish thanks with all its heart those who have contributed so much to this rebirth.

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time B - June 23rd, 2024

Today —in these days of «stormy weather»— we find the Gospel being held up to questioning. Humanity has gone through dramas which, like violent waves, have broken over individuals and entire peoples, particularly during the 20th century and the troubles of the 21st. Sometimes we can't help but ask «Master, don't you care if we sink?» (Mk 4,38); If You really do exist, if You are our Father, how can these things happen?

Before the horror of the memory of the concentration camps of the Second World War Pope Benedict asks «Where was God when this was happening, Why did He stay silent? How could He tolerate such excessive destruction?». It was a question that the people of Israel asked in the Old Testament: «Why are you asleep? (...) Why do you hide your face from us and forget about our plight?».

God will not answer those questions: of him we can ask everything except why; we have no right to demand explanations. In fact, God is there and is talking; the problem is us, because we do not put ourselves in his presence and therefore cannot hear his voice. «We cannot decipher God's secret —says Pope Benedict XI—. We can only see fragments of it and are in the wrong if what we are trying is to become judges of God and History. As such we would not be defending humanity, but rather would be contributing to its destruction».

Therefore, the problem is not whether God exists or is here with us or not. The problem is that we live as if He didn't exist. Here is God's answer: «Why are you so afraid? How can you not have faith?» (Mc 4,40). This Jesus said to His disciples; He also said it to Saint Faustina Kowalska: «My daughter, do not be afraid, I am always with you even when it looks as though I am not».

Let us not ask him questions, but rather let us pray and accept His will and... then there will be less dramas, and, amazed, we will say «Who is he whom even the wind and the sea obey him?» (Mc 4,41) —Jesus, I put all my trust in you!
